Class of 1911*

K.

Realizing that without their help the progress of Virginia High School would not have been possible, we, the fiftieth class, respectfully dedicate this twenty-seventh edition of The Virginian to all who have contributed in any way to the progress and achievements of the school during its first half-century.

We, the Senior Class of 1916, dedicate this, the first issue of

The Virginian

to

Mrs. Virginia Parrish

our beloved teacher and friend.

C A T I O N

A P P R E C

As THE VIRGINIAN goes to press we learn, with regret, that Superintendent B. D. French will not be with us after the expiration of his present term on July first.

We wish to take this opportunity to express to him our sincere and grateful appreciation for the many kindnesses he has shown us, and for his keen interest in our welfare and that of the school. Our very best wishes go with him for his continued success in the educational world.

I A T I O N

In loving appreciation for her unselfish and untiring efforts in our behalf we pause to dedicate this page of our 1945 VIRGINIAN to Miss Ruby Mort, who, because of serious illness, has been forced to be away from us since Christmas. We wish for her a complete recovery and for the students at V. H. S. her return to them in the near future.

FOREWORD

*A*s we stand upon the threshold of a second half-century we have tried to present a picture of our school days, and at the same time to portray in a small way some of the growth and achievements of our first fifty years.

We trust that our efforts will remind each of us of many pleasant memories.

CLASS HISTORY

Only five years ago a young and ambitious group of boys and girls invaded the halls of Virginia High School. Our nervousness was somewhat calmed by the helpful attitude of the faculty and we were relieved to know that we would be given exploratory courses to help us get acquainted with the subjects offered in high school. With Betty Garland as our president we stumbled through the sub-Freshman year with our spirits high.

Then came the Freshman year and our courses and subjects were selected. This year we elected George Raynes as our president and we were proud to have Bobby Canter as president of the Junior Student Cooperative Association. December 7, 1941, and the outbreak of the war saddened our attitude but it all seemed far away from us. Latin, algebra, and science notebooks were far more pressing problems than the prosecution of the war so far as we were concerned.

In our Sophomore year we were beginning to feel more like a part of the school. We selected Bobby Canter for our president. Our boys began to make a showing in sports; boys and girls were being taken into clubs; Betty Wiley was secretary of the Senior S.C.A. and also was selected "Miss Virginia High V." We were proud to know she was the first Sophomore to have that honor. With Jack Kane winning the Declamation Award at Speech Night, a very full year came to a close.

We experienced an exciting year as Juniors and again voted Bobby Canter as president; he was elected vice-president of the Senior S.C.A. When Bill Royston enlisted in the Army we felt the war coming nearer to us. Our football prospect for the year looked bad after losing Coach Homer Harris to the Navy, but two Bristol business men, Fred Reuning and Bob Kell, generously volunteered to coach and led Virginia through a successful season. With club outings, spring plays, and the much looked forward to Junior-Senior Banquet a year, that we felt never could be topped, ended.

And so here it is at last, the Senior year. We have chosen Lewis Gardner, as president, to lead us through the final year. We look around and we're very happy to see so many of our starting ones still with us. We are very fortunate in having lost only a few of our classmates to the armed services.

This year we march through the halls with just a little more dignity and poise. The boys are glad to be relieved of the strenuous physical education which was so readily stepped up at the outbreak of the war. We are proud to see The Little Virginian, our school paper, which ceased a few years ago, being printed again under the direction of the Senior S.C.A. with Nancy Stant as the very capable editor. We go to the Junior-Senior Banquet this year just a little sorry we are guests.

While here at Virginia High, we have learned to study in class, and at home, to hold offices, to work on committees and assembly programs, thereby deriving a great deal of pleasure out of all of them. And so after the Senior play, Senior outing and graduation exercises we look to the war-torn future dubiously knowing that we shall never forget five of the most wonderful years of our life.

Resume' of Football

Virginia High opened its 1944-45 football season with an aggressive Narrows eleven. Narrows made the winning score in the last two minutes of play when a Narrows back "knifed off" tackle, reversed his field and out ran the Virginia secondary for 6 points. With only seconds remaining, Virginia received and carried the ball back to the Narrows 29-yard line only to be stopped by the clock. Virginia scored its touchdown midway in the third period, when Canter returned a punt 65 yards for 6 points. Final score: Narrows, 12; Virginia, 6.

Playing in constant rain on a muddy, treacherous gridiron Virginia won its first game, 6-0, against the well-balanced and extremely fast Buccaneers from Big Stone Gap. The Buccaneers were dangerous throughout the game, but were unable to beat through the Virginia line with a scoring punch.

Virginia, crippled by injuries from the two previous games, started the game against Erwin with six substitutes in the lineup. The only scoring break came in the third quarter when Erwin fumbled on its own 5-yard line and Virginia recovered the ball. On the first play Walling cracked through tackle for a touchdown. The game ended with Erwin 19, Virginia 6.

A powerful Johnson City team defeated Virginia 39-7 in a hard fought game. Whicker scored the one touchdown on an intercepted pass. Gilley added the point.

With both its offensive and defensive clicking, Virginia won its very first victory over William King on an Abingdon field. The final score was 13-0, both touchdowns being made from Whicker to Johnson. Gilley made the extra point by placement.

Elizabethton, holders of the Big Five Championship, defeated Virginia 52-0. While we made 7 first downs to 9 for the opponents, the "Cyclones" from Elizabethton did all the scoring. Our only threat was in the second quarter when Everett ran 55 yards to the opponents' 6-yard line.

The city championship battle found Virginia with several regulars on the bench because of injuries. We made 10 first downs to 14 for Tennessee, but again we lacked the scoring punch. The game ended with Tennessee 40, Virginia 0. We placed three men, Walling, Young, and Johnson on the all-city team.

The final game of the season was a second game with Erwin, the result of which was a 24-0 victory for Erwin.

A Half-Century of Athletics

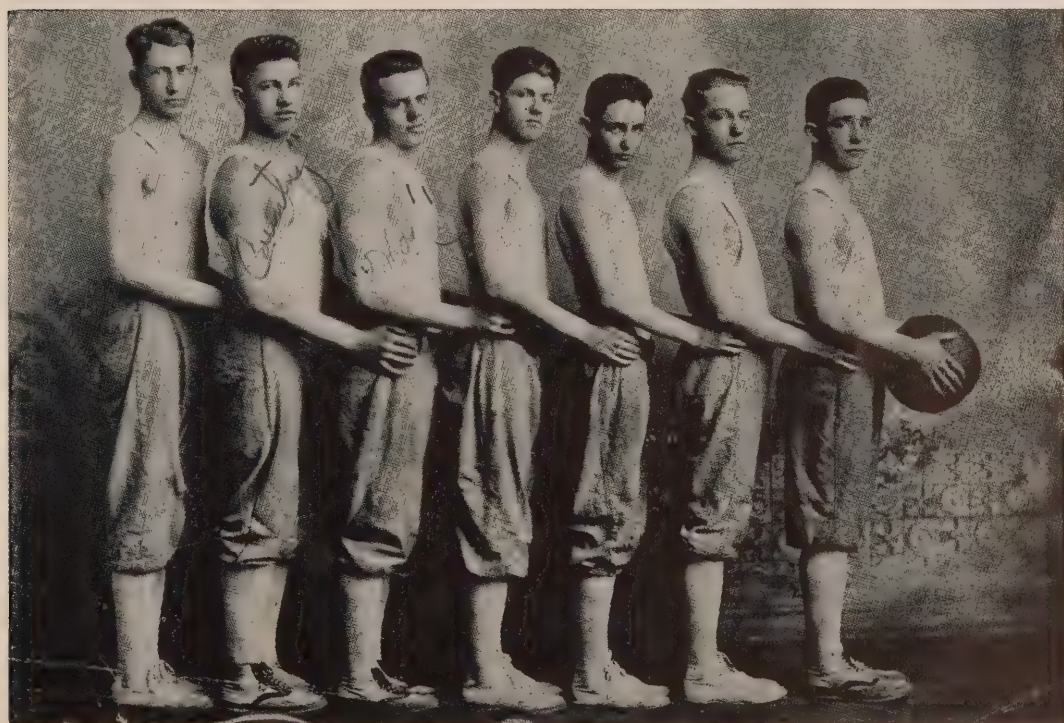

We find the following in an 1895 issue of "Step By Step," published by the Collman Literary Society of Virginia High School: "Early in the fall the boys began playing what they called 'Caddy.' They used heavy sticks in the game, and Professor Sheppe, after watching it very carefully, found it to be very dangerous. Consequently, he saw that it was best to stop it, and suggested that they get a football. They began at once to make up the money for the purpose. But their interest began to lag, until Thanksgiving day, when they became enthusiastic over the game between St. Albans and University of Tennessee. On Friday after Thanksgiving they organized an athletic association and ordered a football at once. The ball arrived last week and they are now practicing at every opportunity." This was, no doubt, the first football the students ever had had.

Since there was no Annual until 1916, we have no written records of athletic activities before that time, but we have heard various oral reports of such outstanding players as the Parrish, Cocke, Hines, Rutherford and Long brothers, along with "Dusty" Rhodes, Ben Frizzell and others.

During our first half-century, we have had excellent teams, average teams, and just teams. Two of our members, Gene McEver and Beattie Feathers, made All-American while playing for University of Tennessee. At present they are coaching college football. MacCauley McEver, who excelled in athletics at V. H. S. is now head football coach at V. P. I., where, both as a student and an athlete, he made an enviable record. In fact, several of our graduates have chosen coaching as a vocation, and are having great success.

Under the tutelage of such coaches as "Sol" Parrish, Fred Reuning, the late "Pedie" Jackson, "Frosty" Holt, "Pidney" Porterfield, Herman Baker, Chauncey DeVault, "Tige" Harris, and "Hal" Gruber, we have won our share of city, district and state titles in both football and basketball.

Until the past ten years the girls played interscholastic basketball, and had some winning teams. Since the discontinuance of interscholastic competition, they have limited their play to intramural athletics, and a few practice games with the girls from Wallace, Tennessee High, and Virginia Intermont College.

STUDENT COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

The S.C.A. was first organized in 1939 under the leadership of Bill Henry with Mrs. W. W. Fillinger as sponsor. The first year was spent in getting organized. During the next year the S.C.A. took an active part in the community drives and attended the district and state meetings. Its aims have been to create a cooperative spirit between the school and community and to promote good citizenship.

The three upper classes make up the S.C.A. The Perfect Council with its five elected officers, class presidents and representatives of the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes, and the General Council representing each home room, compose the legislative body of the organization. These groups provide the students with a chance to present their problems and keep them informed of student activities.

THE LITTLE VIRGINIAN

The first issue of THE LITTLE VIRGINIAN was published in 1926 as a product of the English department. There were no issues from 1930 until 1935, when it was revived by the journalism class and published monthly until the fall of 1943. It has been renewed again this year under the direction of the Senior High S. C. A.

SPEECH CLUB

The public speaking department was organized in the early thirties under the guidance of Mr. E. A. Goble.

The purpose of the Speech Club, which has bi-monthly meetings, is to promote better speaking throughout the student body.

Speech night is held during the week of graduation, at which time there are contests in reading, declamation, and sometimes debates.

The Girls' Hi-Y began its existence in 1940 under Helen Hobart as president and Misses Evelyn Bickers and Ruby Crumley as sponsors. It now has a membership of fifteen Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. To be a member one must be elected unanimously and have a scholastic average of B. The purpose of the Hi-Y is to create, maintain and extend high standards of Christian character.

Meetings are held bi-monthly in the homes of the members. This year the club has worked for the Red Cross, and on many drives. The girls also gave a play for assembly.

BETA CLUB

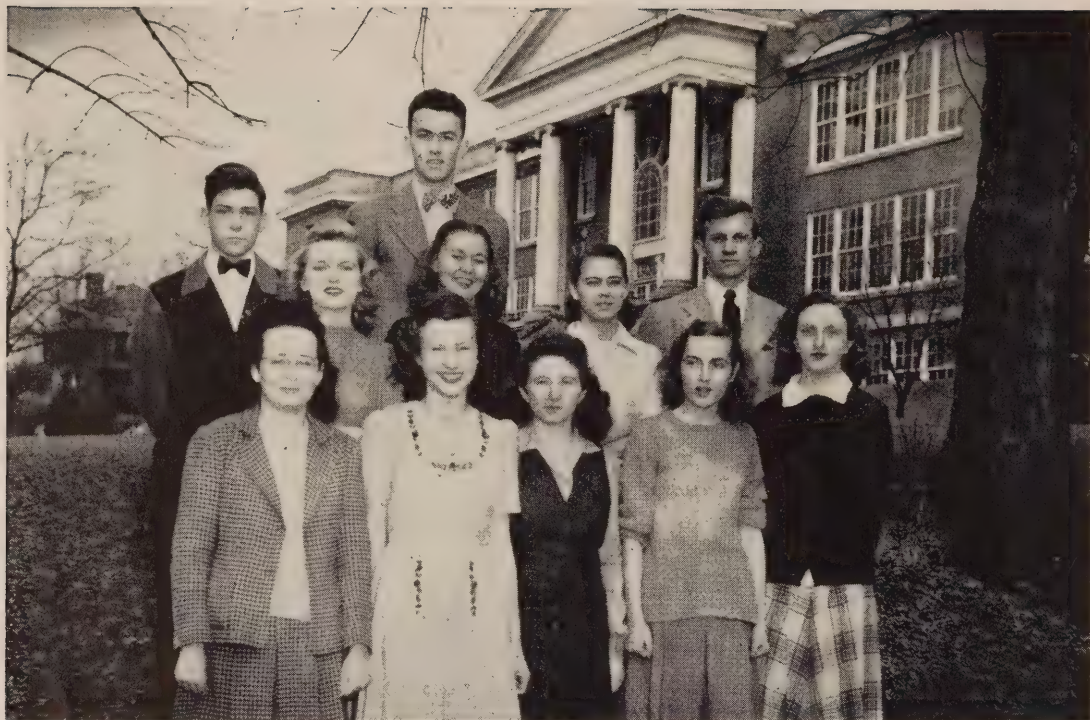

The Beta Club received its charter from the National organization in June, 1938, with around twenty charter members. In September of that year under the sponsorship of Mr. E. A. Goble, who had been influential in securing our local chapter, the club began its first year's work with William Charles as President.

The purpose of Beta Club is to promote a sense of honesty, individual responsibility, and leadership among its members. It holds bi-monthly meetings at the school.

Until the transportation and housing problems arose, annual State Conventions were held in March in Roanoke, Virginia. The entire club membership had the opportunity to attend these conventions which were very helpful and inspiring. In 1942, one of our members, Jimmie Drinkard, was State President.

In 1900, the library consisted of two book cases. Mrs. Virginia Parrish supplemented the reading for her English classes by giving entertainments and plays, purchasing sets of classics and fiction from the proceeds. Mrs. Eaton was building a library also at the same time by the same methods.

When the two libraries numbered about a thousand volumes, they were combined and moved to the room used for study halls, its present location. A full-time librarian, Miss Annie Aaron, was appointed. Mrs. Parrish's office was made the stack room, and the library started its growth.

The Library Club was organized November 21, 1933, by Miss Annie Aaron. Eleanor Roberts was the first president.

In 1935, the library was named for Mrs. Virginia Parrish, who then became sponsor of the club.

The club has varied in size and is composed of student librarians who help with routine tasks in the library.

The members of the Library Club, at present, help serve a school population of over 800, with a collection of over 5,800.

BOYS' HI-Y

The first records of the Boys' Hi-Y as an organization at Virginia High School comes from the 1921 VIRGINIAN. That year Palmer Rutherford was president of the club that consisted of 40 members. This is the beginning of the Boys' Hi-Y that, although it has dropped out for a few years in the last 24 years, has had such leaders as the following who are past presidents: Wesley Davis '25, Carl Trantum '27, Tom Burns '30, Thomas King '31, Dudley Senter '40, George Wiley '41, Pat Hall '42, Bill Wampler '43, and Sam Pepper '44.

The Boys' Hi-Y was once organized by Mr. F. L. Marney as the Junior Boys' Hi-Y. From this time on though, it has functioned as the Boys' Hi-Y.

The Dramatic Club was organized in 1934 with 16 girls and 10 boys. That year the club gave a one-act Hallowe'en play, a three-act Christmas play and the Senior play. The next year the club gave, in addition to the other plays, a group of one-act plays in the spring which we still continue to give.

The 1944-45 Dramatic Club presented a Hallowe'en play for chapel; our Christmas play rehearsals were stopped by the closing of school. This spring the club will give some one-act plays and the Senior play.

Diversified Occupations Club

MOTTO: EARN WHILE WE LEARN

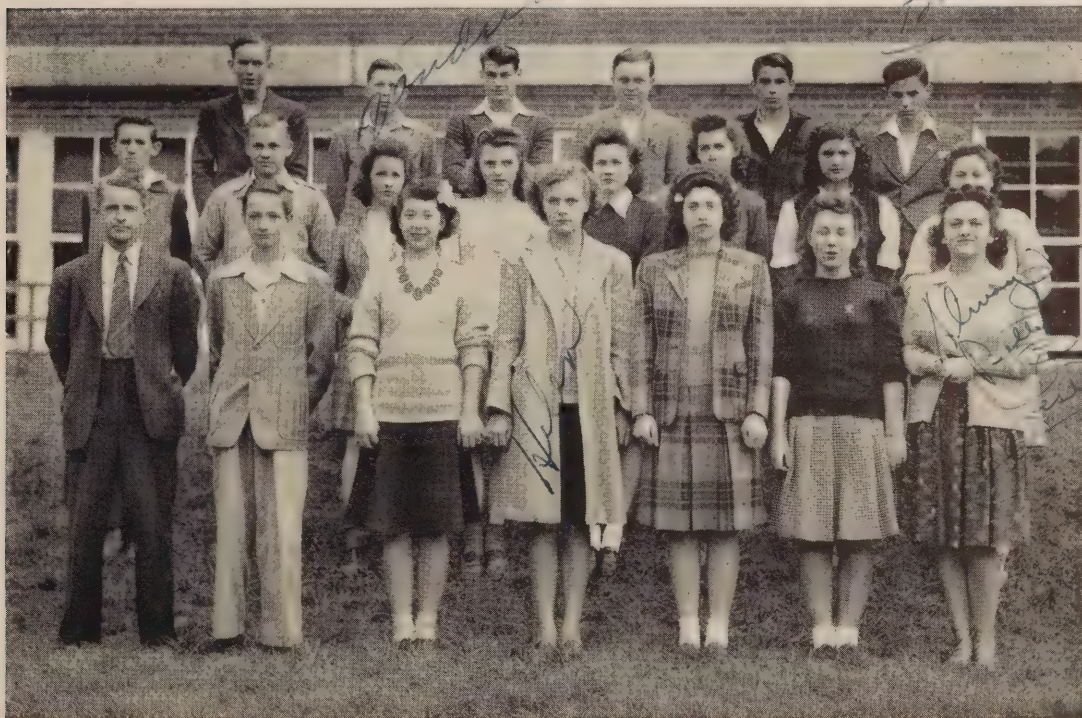

The Diversified Cooperative training program's main objectives are to place a Junior or Senior in the job which is best suited for him, and to provide permanent employment in his chosen field after graduation.

The advantages gained by a student entering this program are: To establish habits of work, knowledge of working condition, experience in getting along with other workers, and skills and related information which boys and girls can rightfully expect to exchange for a wage.

This year twenty-four pupils are enrolled in the program. They are employed in office training, radio service, laundry, retail selling, machine shop, auto mechanics, stock clerk, optician, baking and cake decorating, weaving, and window decorating. These students are allowed to work in the afternoon on the job, while taking three classes at the High School in the morning and receiving two credits, one for related class work and one for successful training on the job.

The following pupils are members of this club: Mildred Branson, Ervin Campbell, Kathleen Couch, Louise Crowe, Helen Dickenson, Dorris Dutton, Donald Foulk, Vondus Goins, Virginia Goodman, Robert Kent, Betty Leslie, Jewell Marshall, Paul Newton, Frances Orfield, Barbara Roberts, Marie Snyder, Leon Singleton, Beverly Shoemaker, Ralph Stewart, Melba Waddell, Helen Whitson and Garland Wright.

Junior Parrish-Vance Foundation

Realizing the need for an organized group to answer the many calls for service to our school and community, Miss Jennie Buford Hanson, in 1936 helped to form the Junior Parrish-Vance Foundation, with Hazel Shankel as its first president. At that time there was a senior organization by the same name. Both groups were named for Mrs. Virginia Parrish and Mrs. W. K. Vance, Sr.

Miss Hanson was sponsor of the club until the fall of 1941 when she went to George Washington University for graduate study. Since that time Miss Hillman has sponsored the group, which continues to have for its purpose the cooperation with the school and community in drives such as Red Cross, and Infantile Paralysis.

The problems and responsibilities of a patrolman are many and varied. When a boy is taken into the patrol he accepts these responsibilities willingly. He realizes his duty concerning the personal safety of every boy and girl in our school. The students are cognizant that the fire buzzer means something a little more serious to these boys; that athletic contests mean work for them; that safety zones are not to be violated. Surely these boys are serving with honor their school and community.

The Music Club began its existence this year and has had a very successful year for its first one.

The object of the club is to help the members to appreciate all types of music. At each of the meetings, which are held bi-monthly, a composer or some era in musical history is discussed and then typical music of that composer or period is played.

As the annual goes to press a list of next year's initiates is being compiled and the club is looking forward to a very successful year in 1945-46.

FIRST GRAND SON

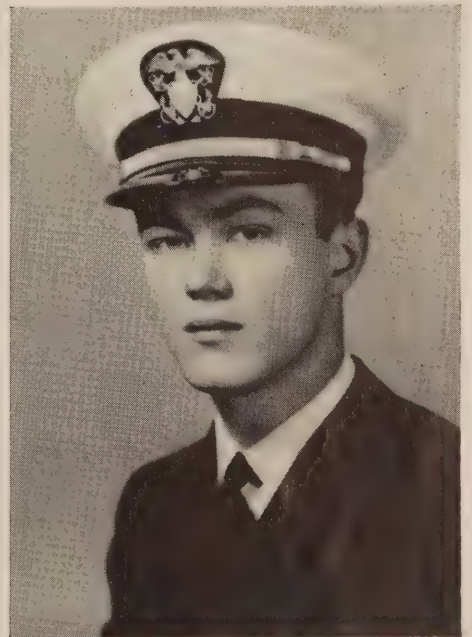

MRS. ALICE SHEPPE KILGORE

Ensign Moore, son of Elizabeth Kilgore Moore and C. P. Moore, II, is the grandson of Mrs. Alice Sheppe Kilgore who graduated from Virginia High in 1896. Following his graduation from Virginia High School in 1941 he entered V. P. I., where he made an excellent record. In July, 1943, he joined the Navy and in November of that year he entered the V-12 Unit at the University of Virginia, graduating from there in November, 1944. From there he was sent to U.S.N. Reserve Midshipmen's School in New York, from which place he received his commission as Ensign on March 8, 1945. He was an honor student of his class, and is now serving his country in the Pacific theater of war.

We are very proud of this first grandson. We are proud, too, of his grandmother, the former Alice Sheppe, who, after graduating from high school, graduated from Sullins College and taught music in Wise County for several years. She married Mr. Charles T. Kilgore and lived in Wise, Virginia, until 1920, when she moved to Bristol, Virginia, where she lives at present. The following children are V. H. S. graduates: Robert, Charles T., Jr., Gordon, Billy, Margaret Kilgore Crockett, Nancy Kilgore Bunn, and Sallie Kilgore Vander Muelen. Ensign Moore's mother, Elizabeth Kilgore Moore, had graduated from high school before coming to Bristol.

THREE GENERATIONS

JACK DEHART KANE—1945

FLORINE DEHART MERCEREAU—1924

JOHN T. DEHART—1895

Jack DeHart Kane, while not Virginia High' first grandson, is the grandson of the school's first graduate, Mr. John T. DeHart, a very successful lawyer of our city. We are glad Jack is a member of the fiftieth class, and we wish for him as much success as his distinguished grandfather, who excelled in grades, public speaking and oratory, both in high school, King College, and University of Georgia. We might add that Jack won the Declaimer's Medal at V. H. S., when he was a Sophomore.

Jack's mother, the former Florine Findley DeHart, won a medal and holds a first grade teacher's certificate from Chalif School of Dancing in New York City. She is also a graduate of Vestoff-Serova Russian School of Dancing, New York City. For a number of years she had dancing classes in Bristol, Virginia, and her pupil recitals were always very artistic and lovely. At times, an added feature of these recitals was the appearance of Miss DeHart, herself, who is a very talented and beautiful dancer.

SOCIETY

As THE VIRGINIAN goes to press we have had six grand months of work and play. The social life in this span will last in our minds and hearts forever. They are times not to be forgotten and that can never be lost.

October 31, the Dramatic Club and Expression students, under the direction of Miss Eleanor Curtin, gave a one-act Hallowe'en play.

November 24, in the school cafeteria the event everyone looks forward to in his high school years, the football banquet, was held. After the banquet one of the most successful dances of the year was given by the Junior Parrish-Vance Foundation. That is one night I never will forget.

We all regretted having missed the annual Christmas plays. They were to be given December 15, but because of heavy snows the Christmas holidays began a week early. I know we would have enjoyed them.

The Boys' Hi-Y had an outing at Bluff City on February 5, which was a cold day, but no one minded.

A Valentine dance was given for the Tennessee D. O. Club by the Virginia High D. O. Club. It was held in the library and the decorations were lovely.

All these wonderful times and yet just look what we have to look forward to: Stunt Day, Beauty Contest, Spring Plays, Junior-Senior Banquet, Senior Outing, Club Outings, Club Programs, Senior Play, Miss Curtin's Piano and Expression Recital, Speech Night, and Class Night, and then what every Senior looks forward to as the most important event in his high school years—June 1st and Graduation.

+ + C L A S S

Guess what I've been doing for the past several days? I've been going over the files of the Herald Courier in order to catch up on all V. H. S. news that I missed while with the Army of occupation in Europe.

After being away for ten years I've a lot of reading to catch up on. Ernest Booher and Bob McNutt seem to be making a big success. They are printers at the Bristol Herald Courier. On top of the file I found an issue dated July 5, 1955, which contained an advertisement from Howard Barker's Restaurant. He has as his assistant Ervin Campbell.

This one is advertising Gardner's Laundry. His secretary is Ruth Bowers. You know Lewis and "Stinky" Boswell are married and have twins. So no wonder Lewis went in the laundry business.

Here are some social items:

After nine months hard work, some of the teachers are craving for summer vacations. They are: Coach Bill Cunningham, Band Director Jimmy Lester, Music Teacher Peggy Leonard, and Joan Newland who recently took over Miss Garrett's classes in geometry, and Expression Teacher Shirley Jo Stewart.

Mary Ellen Huntsman and Mildred Powell are competing for the "undiscovered voice of America."

Marie Emmert and Billie Westmoreland had a double wedding and are now living in a "duplex house."

Audrey Farris and Nellie Tester, after having served two years with the U. S. Nurse Corps overseas, have returned home and are in Washington.

Oh! Here's an "Extra Edition," and it's full of political news. Bill Pritchett, who is the Republican candidate for State Representative, made his first campaign speech tonight. It was prepared by Campaign Manager Marion Shepherd. Governor Charlie Whicker will also make a speech tonight. John Lynch was re-elected State Senator and Eldridge Kegley was appointed by the President as ambassador to South America. He has as his secretary, George Raynes. They will leave for South America in the near future. The exact date has not been announced.

Society Editor Nancy Stant sent a copy of the New York Times to the Herald Courier. In it are some names of people I used to know.

Dr. Charles Sawtelle, accompanied by Nurse Ada Lou Horsley, will return to their homes in Bristol, Virginia, after having attended a medical convention here. While in New York, they stayed with Wilson Lovett, who took them to see Bob McGhee in his "Gypsy Rose Lee act at the Stork Club.

Betty Wiley is modeling for Vogue magazine while Doris Marshall is modeling for Charm. The former Lorraine Bowers, Martha Hopkins, Kathleen Couch, and Laura Blaylock are all living together here in New York. They took an apartment together after their husbands left to work in Canada.

Here in this dusty file, I find a lot of interesting things. Jim Friedman received a promotion and is now an announcer with NBC.

Tonight, Margaret Morley will be heard in the Metropolitan Concert.

Clarence Morton, Marvin Jones, Earl Cross and John Moore will sing tonight over NBC at 8:30.

Here's another Herald Courier. In the Bristol Briefs section are some news items that seem interesting.

Policeman Jack Eversole said Virgie Triplette reported someone had broken into her delicatessen shop on State Street. It belongs to Miss Triplette, Miss Helen Jones, and Miss Jewell Wood. I wonder if Jack Kane could have gotten them for his restaurant?

If you intend to send your children to kindergarten, please notify Mildred Lee or Willie Jo Moore before August 31. Our motto: "If your kids are brats, send them to us."

Harold Tipton: Well, well, if it isn't Ted Thompson. Where on earth did you come from? I haven't seen you in over ten years.

Ted Thompson: Oh, I just got in from Williamsburg where I have been teaching history at William and Mary College.

H.: Well Professor, where's Thea now?

T.: Thea? She's been assisting me at William and Mary. We intend to be married in September. We're going to have Bill Spicer marry us. Would you like to come to the wedding?

H.: I surely would. Ted, do you know any news? That's what I'm doing here—just starving for news.

T.: Oh, yes. The family has told me all the news and I've seen a lot of my friends.

H.: Well, give boy, give—

T.: Well, Bob Canter's now running a pawn shop and he seems to be doing pretty well. Bob and Wayne Lyon almost had a fight the other day; Wayne was dating his girl as usual, and Bob didn't like it. The president of King College, Bobby King, advertised for a secretary and Doris Carrier and Dot Allen Cole both applied. Doris has finally learned to type, but somehow Dot Allen got the job.

P R O P H E C Y

H.: Well, what's happened to Allen Clark, Jim Rainero, Willie Jones, Kessee and those Hi-Y boys?

T.: Frank Fleenor is a judge in the Court of Appeals and he gave Allen Clark his license back after they were taken away for speeding. Bill Kessee and William Jones are cashiers at Dominion National Bank and "Rainero" finally married Barbara Galliher, and he's running a men's shop. By the way, Bob Stoots is a speed tester for Buicks.

H.: I heard that Garland is sweetheart of Pi Pi Signa.

T.: You mean Betty Garland?

H.: Yes.

T.: That girl surely gets around. Tip, have you been up to Bill Smith's and Joe Everett's pool room yet?

H.: No, I haven't. I didn't know they had one—Oh yes, they finally got the money to pay the down payment and they're paying $10.00 a month.

T.: Let me see that paper. Hm—here's a picture of a new home that recently burned. Fireman Rouse Fleenor says fire was caused by bad wiring. The home belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hartsock.

H.: Well, wonder who Ralph's wife is? I must find out.

H.: Ted, I saw Billie Wayne Ryan's picture in some magazine the other day. She's advertising the "Before" of DuBarry's course.

T.: Oh, Jean McCracken and Dick Kistner have another baby. This is four.

H.: Golly! How long has he been married?

T.: Just eight years. Oh! "Hicks" was voted "Miss Atlantic City" about three months ago. Do you think she and Pinky will ever marry?

H.: I don't know, but it looks like they might. Col. and Mrs. Herschel Stevens.

T.: Well, I wonder if Thea is through yet?

H.: Where is she?

T.: Oh, she's at Helen Whitson's and Evelyn Stephenson's beauty parlor having her hair washed.

H.: Hm—I hear Edna Montgomery is President and Hope Moody is Vice-President of the Get Your Man Club. That's something new, isn't it?

T.: Sorta—Harold, can you imagine George Clark hanging paper and Jack Stigall and Fred Ellis foremen at Bristol Steel and Iron Works? I can't.

H.: No, I can't. Did you see that new plane Robert Tapscott designed? He's designing them for Boeing. The picture was in Life.

T.: Virginia Goodman, Louise Crowe and Dorris Dutton are running a very exclusive dress shop and they have a very wide selection of dresses.

H.: There goes Mary Ann Godsey, Elaine Hecht, Betsy Nininger and Betsy Judkins. What are they doing these days?

T.: Mary Ann's teaching "slow speech" and Elaine is teaching art at Sullins and Betsy J. is trying to copy Hugh Dunbar's poetry and Betsy Nininger is teaching horseback riding at V. I. C.

H.: How about that? I didn't think they had it in them. Here's an advertisement in this paper from Koty's Garage. You know John is sole proprietor now.

T.: Elizabeth Miller is a lawyer and Hugh (no relation I think) is farming with Leon Singleton. They are said to have had the largest tobacco crop in this section.

H.: Come one—come all, join our "Class of Loafing." Beverly Shoemaker and Paul Newton.

T.: That's about all "Sluggo" and Newton can do—and did you know Jewell Marshall is owner of a dress shop? Melba Waddell is her window decorator and Doris Tate, one of her clerks.

T.: Well Tip, I think I'll go around to the beauty shop and see if Thea is through.

H.: O. K., Ted.

After spending these several days among files of the Herald Courier, I'm going home, take a bath and go to bed.

+ + CLASS

We, the graduating class of Virginia High, in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Forty-five, wish to submit our last will and testament, before leaving this school that has endeavored to prepare us for the long journey ahead of us.

To the Juniors, we leave the privilege of sitting in the four front rows in the auditorium.

To the faculty, that has worked so faithfully with us, we leave our best wishes that the future classes will be as good as we of '45.

To Mr. ROBINSON, we bequeath the right to call a special meeting, and request that the boys on the corner not block the sidewalk.

Our personal bequests are as follows:

I, JIMMY RAINERO, will my driver's license to GORDON PIPPIN.

We, FRANK FLEENOR and BOB MCGHEE, will our fondness for V. I. and Sullins to TATE GRAHAM and G. F. PATRICK.

We, RALPH HARTSOCK and BILL CUNNINGHAM, will our ability to play basketball to BEVERLY CANTER and LAVERNE GROSS.

We, DOT ALLEN COLE and MILDRED POWELL, will our positions as annual typists to anyone who will take them.

We, JOHN MOORE and EARL CROSS, leave our boxing gloves to BILL BARB and BOB WIDENER.

I, DORIS CARRIER, will my surplus sailors at Emory to BARBARA BROADHURST.

We, KATHLEEN COUCH and RUTH BOWERS, will our extra height to EVA THOMAS and EDITH BELLAMY.

I, LOUISE CROWE, will my studious ways to TATE GRAHAM.

We, AUDREY FARRIS and HOPE MOODY, will our athletic ability to two deserving Juniors.

I, ROUSE FLEENOR, will my fighting ability, acquired in sixth period History class, to HUGH DUNBAR.

We, MARTHA HOPKINS, BILLIE WAYNE RYAN, EDNA MONTGOMERY, and MILDRED BRANSON, leave our secretarial ability to anyone who can pass Miss RUST's course.

We, GEORGE CLARK, FRED ELLIS, and MARVIN JONES, will our eagerness for work to DONALD FOULK, BOB STRICKLAND and JIMMY HENSLEY.

I, MARY ELLEN HUNTSMAN, will my way with the faculty to JANICE GOBBLE.

I, ELAINE HECHT, leave my ability to work out Geo. propositions to anyone who thinks he can do it.

I, PAUL NEWTON, will my ability to lead the Senior line to DICK GAINER.

We, MARGARET MORLEY and PEGGY LEONARD, will our musical ability to ANN CARTER and BARBARA COMER.

I, BETSY NININGER, will the privilege of throwing pennies on the stage without getting caught to JOAN KEYT.

We, JIMMY LESTER and RANDALL YOUNG, leave the job as business managers of the annual staff to any two unfortunate Juniors.

We, LAURA BLAYLOCK, DORIS DUTTON, VIRGINIA GOODMAN, MILDRED LEE, DOROTHY LOWE, HELEN JONES and WILLIE JO MOORE, will our quietness to the following: PATSY HUTTON, IRIS JESSEE, NANCY MOORE, JOYCE NAVE, JOAN MUSICK, MARY LOY SAMPSON and VIRGINIA SANDIDGE.

I, JIMMY FRIEDMAN, leave my flying ability to JACK MALCOLM.

I, BARBARA GALLIHER, will my fondness for the Breakfast Club to EUNICE LONG.

We, JACK EVERSELE and BOB KING, will our important post on the Safety Patrol to BILL ELMER OPINGER and BOBBY CREGER.

WILL + +

I, BETTY GARLAND, will my affection for boys to DORIS HOLMES.

I, WILLIAM JONES, will my ability to save a nickel to JOHN SPURGEON.

I, ELDRIDGE KEGLEY, will all my extra gas coupons to JIMMIE JOE SANDOE.

I, BETSY JUDKINS, will my interest in HUGH DUNBAR to BETSY RUTH COX.

I, JOHN KOTY, will my workmanship with a B.B. gun to JOE GEMMELL.

We, ELIZABETH MILLER and JOAN NEWLAND, leave our Geo. notebooks to JEROME GOURSE and ANN NEBLETT.

I, IMOGENE MCCrackEN, leave my position as cheerleader to GWEN GEMMELL.

We, WAYNE LYON and BILL SPICER, will our experience with Uncle Sam to anyone who wants it.

I, WILSON LOVETT, leave my ability to get along with Mr. KING to BETTY BARNHILL.

I, MARIAN SHEPHERD, will the presidency of the Girls' Hi-Y to some lucky Junior.

I, ERVIN CAMPBELL, will my jolly disposition to BILL BARB, who certainly needs it worse than I.

I, MARY ANN GODSEY, will my tactful way of getting a date to BETTY HAMMER.

I, JUNE HICKS, leave my empty cosmetic bottles to PEGGY HECK.

I, JOHN LYNCH, will the privilege of reading magazines during class to BILLY WYGAL.

I, HUGH MILLER, will my fondness for having the devotionals in Miss GARRETT's room to BUDDY EARP.

I, GEORGE RAYNES, leave my good manners to SAM McDANIEL.

We, HOWARD BARKER, JEWELL MARSHALL and DOROTHY MCCrackEN each, will 15 pounds to JOE FLEENOR, GLADYS ROBINSON and ANNA SHANKS, respectively.

I, CHARLES SAWTELLE, will my clean wit to TAMMY FARNSWORTH.

I, THEA SOPIGOTI, will my watchful care over BILL GOODE to JOYCE CARRIER.

I, NANCY STANT, will my untiring efforts for The Little Virginian to anyone who wishes to continue them.

I, ROBERT TAPSCOTT, will my expertly built model airplanes to JIM THOMPSON.

I, DORIS ANNE TATE, will my ability to stay out of school without getting caught to RUTH GRADO.

We, HAROLD TIPTON and MARY HELEN CASSLER, will our affection for each other to GWEN GEMMELL and BOB GILLEY.

I, WAYNE WILLARD, leave my photographic ability to ORGEL JACKSON.

We, ERNEST BOOHER, LUCY WILLIAMS and EVELYN STEPHENSON, will our chairs in Miss GARRETT's room to three fortunate Juniors.

I, DICK KISTNER, will my northern accent to HERBERT JOHNSON.

I, CLARENCE MORTON, will my supervision over the sixth period Physical Ed. class to JACK WALLING.

I, BILL PRITCHETT, will my intellectual ability to several Juniors who certainly need it.

I, BILL SMITH, will the privilege of staying out of school to HERBERT WALLICK.

I, BOB CANTER, leave my private office in the stack room to the editor of next year's annual.

I, DORIS MARSHALL, will the honor of being Mrs. SMITH's pet to NANCY GEE.

We, HELEN WHITSON, MARIE SNYDER, MELBA WADDELL and BEVERLY SHOEMAKER, will our membership in Mr. PEARSON'S D. O. class to HELEN DICKENSON, FRANCES ORFIELD, BARBARA ROBERTS and RALPH STEWART.

I, NELLIE TESTER, will my singing talent to MARCELINE BURNETTE.

I, BETTY WILEY, will the chairmanship of the Social Committee to anyone who wants it.

I, JEWELL WOOD, will my fondness for reading to NANCY HAWKINS.

I, BOB STOOT, will my ability to loaf and get by to some Junior who wants to try it.

I, TED THOMPSON, will my knowledge of history to JACK HARKINS.

We, JOE EVERETT, JACK STIGALL, CHARLES WHICKER and BOB McNUTT, will our football ability and experience to WALTER HURT, JACK STOOT, GLENN JORDAN and BILL GOODE.

I, LORRAINE BOWERS, will my fondness of Home Ec. to MARGARET HAWK.

I, JACK KANE, will my ability to eat to whoever can pay the check.

We, SHIRLEY JO STEWART and ADA LOU HORSLEY, will our ability to get to school early to ANN FRANCIS and PASTY GLOVER.

We, BILLIE WESTMORELAND and MARIE EMMERT, leave our places in the lunch room to NANCY MOORE and ELEANOR WORLEY.

I, BILL KESSEE, will the presidency of the Dramatic Club to a deserving Junior.

We, LOUIS GARDNER and MARTHA BOSWELL, will our places in our English, History, and Spanish classes to any two people who are interested in each other.

APRIL, 1896.

As the school term draws to a close, it is evident that the pupils will all appreciate the rest and recreation that vacation promises. It is well for us to remember, however, that absolute idleness is not rest—that while freedom from required tasks and strict discipline is a relief, 'life is duty,' and each day the necessity for exertion, either mental or physical, confronts us. We should let no day pass into history without having accomplished something that makes us feel more self-respecting and self-reliant. Unemployed time is a sure indication of neglected duty.

EVERY one could and should be comparatively happy — there's no duty more universal or more binding than that which impels us to make our lives happy, useful, and sunshiny. No life is so sadly environed, but that some ray of hope and sunshine could be found to brighten it, if one only searched rightly for it. Our troubles must be borne, not aired for the benefit, or rather the worry, of others. It really seems very easy to be happy—just to bear your own burdens and gladden the world with your happy sunshiny smile of endurance, remembering "happiness is a perfume which one can not shed over another without a few drops falling on one's self."

PEACE—Are We Ready For It?

Some day, some day soon, maybe the battles of Asia and Europe will be over and then we will have our numerous peace treaties, peace conferences and disarmament conferences. With those we will enter into a so-called "State of Peace."

But will we have obtained a real and lasting peace? Peace cannot and will not exist as long as there is envy, hatred, prejudice, and greed in the minds of men. War will never cease until principles of universal justice and love dominate the minds and hearts of mankind. War will exist and continue until we, as a group and a nation, recognize war for what it is—an insidious monster of evil.

Our task then is to first try to eliminate the petty hatreds, envies, prejudices, and greeds in our relationships. When we do this or at least make an honest effort, then and only then will we be ready for a try at peace, and at life in a world cleansed of war and all that comes with it. The task of obtaining a lasting peace, a just peace and permanent peace rests with us. Will we be ready for it? — H. R. D.
